HALF TANK HEART

WEST VIRGINIA / GRUNGE / ALTERNATIVE ROCK

CURTIS LANCASTER

Half Tank Heart is the independent, grunge-leaning alternative-rock project of West Virginia vocalist and bassist Curtis Lancaster. A baritone-centered sound, bass-first sensibility, and rough-edged arrangements meet songs about distance, identity, difficult love, old fears, and continuing when the tank is not full.

Lancaster also has a background in violin and brass instruments, and composes with digital music tools. Half Tank Heart connects to his writing and independent game projects while maintaining its own release identity.
